

Grief in Pieces Public Launch

25th November

6-7pm

Grief in Pieces is a suicide bereavement service for those who live within one of the North East London boroughs: Hackney and the City of London, Tower Hamlets, Newham, Waltham Forest, Redbridge, Havering and Barking & Dagenham. Grief in Pieces is part of Mind in North East London Safe Connections – Local Support for People Facing Suicide.

What we offer:

- A support group co-facilitated by a mental health practitioner and someone with lived experience of suicide loss,
- Immediate practical and emotional support to access and navigate local services
- One to one crisis intervention and family support.

We are now taking referrals please visit

<https://survey.clicktools.com/app/survey/go.jsp?iv=2e0tix3fxh8lx> or email supportforsuicideloss@mindchwf.org.uk

Join us on 25th November 6-7pm (on zoom) for a public event to mark the launch of the new Grief in Pieces service. You will get a chance to hear some stories from people who have been impacted by suicide loss and why the service is important learn about our values, approach and how this work fits into the wider suicide prevention strategy.

Help us commemorate its beginnings and ask questions.

Eventbrite registration link: <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/grief-in-pieces-public-launch-registration-200964990697>

We look forward to seeing you there!
Mind in North East London

LOCAL SUPPORT
FOR PEOPLE
FACING SUICIDE

 mind
in North East
London

