

National Executive Recruitment

Change of nomination process July 2023

Are you looking for a new challenge and have something to offer to other like-minded funeral professionals?

We are looking for members who have a specialist knowledge, experience or competency in areas such as Human Resources, Health & Safety, legal, marketing (digital experience) and media / TV who would be interested in joining the National Executive Committee.

As a member of the National Executive Committee, you will be expected:

- To attend SAIF events such as regional meetings, education days
- To attend five board meetings per year as well as serving on one of the special interest area sub-committees if required
- To work with and support SAIF membership and national level and across your own region

If this is of interest, please complete the nomination form along with a letter no larger than one side of A4 providing the following information:

- What skills / competencies that you can bring (as mentioned above)
- How have you been involved with SAIF
- How have you raised your profile with the membership and any outside organisations
- How have you maintained your CPD

Please submit both for the attention of Terry Tennens, Chief Executive at terry@saif.org.uk, by 5pm on Friday 15th September 2023. As part of the nomination process, you may be invited to attend the next Executive Committee on the 29th September 2023 in Cardiff.
